and the New cemetery on the Mysore road was made available for the Port Church Community. The Asst Commandg Royal Engineer Bangalore suggests the reconsideration of the decision to close the Ooty Old Cemetery and states that if it cannot be reopened, that the existing cemetery on the Hosur road was quite suitable to the Port Church Community. In this office letter No Pt 991 d 22nd May 1912, the views of the Board that the order of 1898 closing the Ooty Old cemetery cannot be revoked, that the new Cemetery is available for use but that if it is not required, steps would be taken to utilise the site for other purposes. The paper under disposal is a reply
